A major source of inspiration for artists like Joan Miró, Pablo Picasso and Frederic Chopin, Mallorca is the perfect blend of idyllic villages, picturesque coastlines and awe-inspiring mountains. While its nightlife-loving neighbor, Ibiza, may have grabbed the spotlight in recent years, many continue to visit the largest Balearic Island for its Michelin-peppered restaurant scene, olive tree-surrounded vineyards and dramatic views of the Mediterranean Sea. The best hotels in Mallorca reflect the island's creative spirit through architecture, décor and culinary offerings.

We narrowed down the best places to stay based on multiple trips. Decadently romantic, Palma Riad is the perfect spot for traveling couples, while La Residencia, A Belmond Hotel, features an ideal setting for a spa getaway. For traditional surroundings with a modern twist, stay at Can Bordoy Grand House and Garden or Can Ferrereta. And, if you're seeking the best golfing experience on the island, Hacienda Son Antem Golf Resort, Autograph Collection has got you covered. Below, the best hotels in Mallorca in 2024.

Who Will Love It: History buffs; fairytale lovers; weekend romantics

All-Star Amenities: Wine tastings; poolside lounging; luxurious massages

What Not To Miss: Dining experience at Mar & Duix

Location: Puigpunyent

Nestled at the base of the Tramuntana Mountains, Grand Hotel Son Net sits in regal splendor; a 17th-century manor house elaborately restored with original detailings and period décor. Everywhere you turn, rich textiles, ornate furnishings and curated artwork transports visitors back to the erstwhile days of nobility and opulence, albeit with modern conveniences and world-class hospitality. From the grandeur of the common areas and elegant Green Bar, inspiration is a voyage of eye-pleasing Gothic, Baroque and Mallorcan design circa the 1800s. The vast outdoor space comprises ritzy pool areas with classic loungers, a vineyard, an indigenous flora and produce garden and an upcoming spa featuring a saltwater pool and thermal circuit. The bi-level Mar & Duix restaurant serves locally sourced fare paired with signature wine and live musical entertainment. Thirty-one sizeable suites with whimsical and bespoke details that inspire a restful slumber complete the majestic offerings.

 BETA

Who Will Love It:

Travelers seeking a quiet getaway right in the heart of the Old Quarter

All-Star Amenities: Valet service; multi-sensory spa shower; pet-friendly services

What Not To Miss: Plant-forward dining at Botànic

Location: Palma

Discreetly tucked behind an archway in Palma's emblematic La Lonja neighborhood, Can Bordoy is a 16th-century mansion meticulously restored into an intimate 24-suite hotel. In the common areas, the atmosphere is upscale yet inviting by way of mod furnishings and vintage detailing speckled with ambient lighting. The quaint spa, encased in walls dating back to the 1100's, offers organic treatments and an exclusive water therapy shower experience. During high season, guests can request massages in the pergola alongside the heated pool found inside the shrubbery-lined 'secret' garden. Meal options range from healthy all-day breakfasts to rooftop bites and cocktails by the plunge pool loungers with dreamy district views or at the stylish Botànic restaurant, where local vegetables are the star of the show, while meat and fish are supporting acts. Sleek and sophisticated, bedrooms are generously sized with adjustable king-size beds, frescoed ceilings adorned with chandeliers, velvet textiles, minimalist furnishings and art deco headboards.

Who Will Love It: Well-healed outdoorsy couples; active families

All-Star Amenities: On-site spa treatments; historical tours

What Not To Miss: Complimentary weekly yoga classes and wine tastings

Location: Banyalbufar

Situated on a UNESCO World Heritage Site and surrounded by 1,300 acres of lush landscape, the 26-room Son Bunyola estate is a sprawling nature lover's dream. The vast property includes a 16th-century finca equipped with a lengthy heated pool and three private-use villas enclosed in postcard-perfect groves, orchards and magnificent Mediterranean coastline views. Activities cater to all pleasures, from leisurely yoga, spa treatments and cooking classes to more active pursuits including hiking, cycling and kayaking. In homage to the estate's historical past, the interiors mix traditional dark wood vaulted ceilings and hand-woven textiles with modern furniture and splashes of earth-toned hues. Two onsite restaurants, Sa Terrassa—serving an elevated take on Mallorcan cuisine and Sa Tafona, tucked inside the former olive press and offering tapas with a local twist—keep guests pampered and well-fed. Ranging from 270 to 805 square feet with a choice of either sea or mountain views and matching the property's chic rustic decor, rooms at Son Bunyola cater to all lifestyles.

All-Star Amenities: Spa zone; tennis court; golf course

What Not To Miss: Exceptional hilltop views

Location: Son Vida

Perched atop a hill with breathtaking panoramic vistas of the Bay of Palma, Castillo Hotel Son Vida offers a first-rate, adults-only experience. With origins tracing back to the 13th-century, this opulent castle-inspired property enriched with immaculately manicured gardens highlights outstanding adult-tailored amenities. Interiors are just as impressive: An entrance with a grand, winding staircase, multi-colored glass dome ceiling and 19th-century artwork ooze old-world charm. Facilities are top-notch for a holiday à deux; there are two pools, a deluxe spa, a fitness center, a golf course and a tennis court. Of the 164 ultra-comfort rooms—each with king-size beds, balconies or terraces—12 are suites. To round out Hotel Son Vida's abundant offerings, the glass-encased Es Castell restaurant serves Spanish cuisine sprinkled with international flavors and striking bay views, Salon Real offers tea time sweets, while Bar Armas features classic cocktails to enjoy at the tony George Sand Lounge.

Who Will Love It:

Urbanites with classic tastes; lovers of minimalism; art appreciators

All-Star Amenities: Birds-eye terrace views of Arab baths; curated concierge services

What Not To Miss:

Extended breakfast with tailor-made gourmet offerings

Location: Palma

Portella, the former residence and workspace of Spanish painter Joaquin Torrents Lladó, has been reimagined into a 14-room relaxing stay with 5-star creature comforts. While the courtyard entrance with fountain, connecting mini-library and dining space is inviting, its sparsely decorated appearance, save for a shocking blue sofa and vast array of seating options, allows visitors to create their own sense of place. Meals (guests can enjoy breakfast until a decadent 1 p.m.) prepared to your specifications in the casual environment give the impression of eating at home with a personal chef on hand. Staff adds to the indulgence by quietly taking note of your meal and activity preferences to repeat or alternate on consecutive days. Rooftop terrace views of old town stalwarts, a reader's nook, a private steam bath and a 24-hour fitness center complete the in-house amenities. Bedrooms vary in size and furnishings; some feature small kitchens or free-standing baths and some have balconies, terraces or historic center/courtyard views. All have custom headboards and nightstands, decorative lighting fixtures and marble-lined showers for a restful stay that feels more like home than hotel.

What Not To Miss:
Romantic dining at Ocre

Location: Santanyí

Tucked away on a cobbled street in sleepy Santanyí, Can Ferrereta is a chic rustic getaway that delights guests with its design duality. The 17th-century-style façade with archways and tiled rooftops complement the sleek, contemporary art-filled interiors. The ecru and sand-shaded common areas include a lounge, an intimate library, the quaint SaCalma Spa and a sensational patio pool area lined with plantlife, contempo loungers and La Fresca, an inside/outside eatery serving light bites and refreshing cocktails. The Ocre Restaurant, housed in the former wine cellar and styled with wood beams, serves seasonal, regional cuisine in a relaxed indoor setting or the candlelit courtyard. The tranquil vibe extends to the 32 bedrooms and suites, boasting quality bedding, walk-in showers and style-savvy furnishings. To commemorate a special celebration or much-needed break, stay at the Pool Suite and enjoy an ample room with a bathtub, separate lounge space featuring toe-to-tip windows, a private garden and a pool with a sundeck.

Who Will Love It: Seekers of peace and tranquility; avid hikers; rustic retreaters

All-Star Amenities: Signature cocktails; ambient spa facilities; outdoor massages

What Not To Miss: Michelin-starred dining at Sa Clastra

Location: Es Capdellà

Set against the backdrop of the Tramuntana Mountains and an awe-inspiring palm-lined driveway leading to 326 acres of unspoiled verdant landscape, Castell Son Claret is a nature-filled oasis. The exteriors of the main building of the property, a former 19th-century manor house, pay homage to its historic lineage, while inside, stone archways and walls in the lounge, bar and library spaces are adorned with modern art and facilities, offering just a hint of yesteryear. Service is impeccable, and while the newly awarded Michelin-starred Sa Clastra restaurant is a foodie must, nature takes center stage here. From organized hikes and mountain bike escapades to tennis matches and poolside lounging to patio eatery Olivera's homemade lemonade, bucolic splendor surrounds you. Comprised of seven buildings and two newish houses, each of the property's 43 rooms and suites—some with private pools or garden-facing terraces — are neutrally-hued and welcome guests with a traditional Mallorcan ensaïmada pastry, cava, sunbathing essentials and amenities by VITI Vinci, creators of plant-based products found exclusively on the island.

Who Will Love It: City trekkers; weekend romantics; sophisticates

All-Star Amenities: Rooftop lounging; spa services; 24-hour gym

What Not To Miss: Creative cuisine at Quadrant Restaurant & Garden

Location: Palma

Perched on a peaceful namesake plaza fronting a 13th-century Gothic basilica, Sant Francesc Hotel Singular is a one-time stately mansion turned urban-chic stay. While decorative reminders of its storied architecture are found throughout by way of moldings, archways and top-to-toe windows, interiors bathed in swatches of black-framed ivory, taupe and tan shades are decidedly modern. The 42 design-centric rooms, each with individual touches, share the upscale color palette. Amenities include a cocktail bar, an adjoining olive tree-sprinkled courtyard, a cozy underground wellness sanctuary and a fitness zone. Meals are served at Quadrant, a stylish restaurant offering creative Mediterranean cuisine in three ambient spaces. A popular spot at sunset, the Singular Rooftop welcomes guests with a sparkling rectangular pool, a solarium, luxe loungers and cushy sofas alongside manicured shrubbery, seasonal cocktails and light bites service and inspired 360-degree views over old town rooftops and the Cathedral.

 BETA
